RULES — GENERAL

1 All exhibits (excepting those in the floral decoration classes) must be grown by the exhibitor and under the management of the exhibitor in whose name they are shown for at least three months.

2 The Committee may, upon the receipt of a written complaint, inspect the garden, allotment or greenhouse of any exhibitor.

3 The Committee shall have the right to refuse any entry and to decide any matter affecting any interpretation of these Rules.

4 The Committee shall not be held responsible for any loss or damage sustained by exhibitors.

5 Any protest or objection must be made in writing and handed to the Secretary not later than 3.00pm on the day of the Show, accompanied by a fee of £1.00, which will be refunded if the objection is sustained.

6 A novice is a person who has not won a first prize in a corresponding class in any previous BUDHS show.

7 A judge should refrain from entering the exhibition hall until staging has been completed and exhibitors have left. He/she should not know to whom the various exhibits belong and it should be evident that a judge has avoided learning who the owners are.

8 The Judges' decision shall be final on all matters affecting the award of prizes.

9 Any photograph to be taken by exhibitor.

10 Prizes in any Class will only be awarded at the discretion of the Judges.

11 Prize money may be collected from the Treasurer between 3.30pm and 4.30pm on the day of the Show. Failure to do so may result in forfeiture.

12 The Shows will be conducted in accordance with the rules and standards contained in the current Royal Horticultural Society's Horticultural Show Handbook, except where, under this schedule, they obviously do not apply.

For the purposes of these Shows only, RHS Rule 4 will not apply. More than one entry per household in any class will be accepted but not more than one entry per entrant.

13 All vegetable classes will be judged under NVS rules.

14 The Banksian Medal is awarded to the winner of the highest number of place points in the whole of the horticultural classes at the show. The competitors who won the Banksian Medal in 2024 and 2025 are not allowed to win this medal.

Winner for 2024 Mr J Morris, Winner for 2025 Mr W Howarth
